This game seems really fun in videos and screenshots; however, it just really isn't. The game has very odd controls, including a bad camera. Also, the player is thrown into game-play with little introduction. The game also is also pretty buggy, making it difficult to actually play. It looks very quirky and like something I would enjoy, but due to these circumstances I just really couldn't play it.. I've played this for about 2 hours so far and it's really turning into a gem of a game.. this not fun. This game is cute and charming. People come in and order plants, and you have to satisfy the orders by breeding plants with certain traits. You have a limited amount of energy and money to spend each day. For some reason all of the characters are either southern or German. Some of the accents are really corny, but overall I liked the game. Would recommend as a light diversion for adults or an educational game for kids.. This Games has great potetial but still feels unfinished. The way in which you can customize your army is something I have not seen in an RTS. There are only two modes on this game: skirmish and LAN. I hope the devs add a online multiplayer mode. The battles seem to have a adequate amount of micromanagement. I wish the pop cap could be increased. Great game keep up with the updates. good game but it might make u gay. If you like the genre, this is one of the better ones. However, it's very short.

One of my favorite sports games. Very simple and very competitive.. So I have mixed feelings about this game. It does not feel like you're trying to make a home, it feels like you're trying to escape you're home. I felt rushed playing the game like I can't stay on the level to long which I think it should be the opposite. I did not like how "in your face" the main objectives are. But thats just what I don't like. I like how the controls and the fatigue system is now. There are new things to craft, and I like how you don't have to be there for group stuff to long and you get to be the leader. This is a pretty fun game and I like the feel of it. It does feel like a prison game trying to be a survival game, but overall I like it and it feels good to be the one in charge of the group compared to the escapist!. Charming little time killer. Beautiful music accompaniment.. Nice to demo VR to people.. beep royale. Half Life.

. This game is absolutely beautiful and the control is perfect with a twin analog stick controller. The particle count is just bonkers and it looks like the 4th of July.

The music is pretty much the best ever written in human history.

Really fun in short bursts. This developer did absolute MAGIC to the rumble motors, at least with this Xbox 360 controller. And the Pew Pew sounds are the best ever. Seriously.

It gets challenging quickly like a classic arcade game.. It's really bad
